

1. 973
N 3 N 82

United States Department of Agriculture
EXTENSION SERVICE
Washington, D. C.

NOTES ON USING HERBS IN LANDSCAPING
Compiled by Miriam Birdseye

Borders

Low: Chives.	Height: 6 inches	(perennial)
Thymes - French, English, lemon, decorative varieties.	6 inches to 1 foot	(perennial)
Winter savory.	1 foot	(perennial)
Dwarf basil - purple, green.	8 inches	(annual)
Santolina (lavender cotton).	1½ feet	(perennial)
Parsley.	1½ feet	(biennial)
Tall: Hyssop - blue, pink, white.	2 feet	(perennial) Foliage stays green well into winter.
Southernwood.	2 feet	(perennial) Fine-cut gray foliage.
Sage, English.	2 to 2½ feet	(perennial)

"Knots"

Combine clipped santolina (gray), hyssop (dark green),
and feverfew (yellowish).

Backgrounds

Bergamot - rose, mauve, white.	2 to 3 feet	(perennial)
Borage - blue and white; gray, hairy leaves.	1½ feet	(perennial)
Clary sage.	3 feet	(biennial)
Valerian.	4 feet	(perennial)

Ground covers

Camomile, winter savory, thymes (for sun).	(perennial)
Sweet woodruff and spurge (pachysandra terminalis) (for shady spots under trees).	(perennial)
Creeping mints (for damp spots).	(perennial)

Between flagstones

Prostrate thymes.

In walls

Thymes, winter savory.

Against sunny walls

Lavender (not hardy in north).
Sage.	2 feet	(perennial)

